We are thrilled to introduce our newest residential development in Santiago de la Ribera, Murcia, situated in a premier location that offers easy access to local amenities, sports facilities, and several prestigious golf courses. Residents will enjoy being just five minutes from the serene shores of the Mar Menor and only ten minutes from the Mediterranean Sea. While this exclusive project is composed of four quad villas, only two units currently remain available for sale. Each of these modern homes is designed for a seamless indoor-outdoor lifestyle, featuring a private swimming pool, a spacious terrace, and an expansive solarium, as well as a dedicated parking space within the private plot....(Ask for More Details!)
