We are delighted to introduce this development, an exclusive collection of just three luxury villas in one of the finest frontline golf locations at Golf Resort. Designed for discerning international buyers, this development combines striking contemporary architecture with exceptional living spaces, premium finishes and spectacular views across the golf course and surrounding mountains. Every element has been carefully considered to create homes that feel elegant, spacious and effortlessly connected to their natural surroundings. The villas have been designed to maximise natural light through impressive floor-to-ceiling glazing and a spectacular double-height living area, while generous terraces, landscaped gardens and private swimming pools create a seamless
