This is a rare opportunity to acquire an established property management, rental and resale business operating under the recognised brand, ideally located in the heart of San Fulgencio on the Southern Costa Blanca. The business benefits from a prime trading position close to Mercadona, Lidl and the popular Saturday street market, ensuring excellent visibility and consistent passing trade throughout the year. Included within the sale is the opportunity to acquire a freehold commercial unit situated within a busy and expanding commercial centre just off the N332 and less than 40 metres from Mercadona, benefiting from excellent accessibility, substantial on-site parking and on-site security. Freehold commercial units in this location rarely...(Ask for More Details!)
