This lovely corner house is located in the Spanish seaside town of Santiago de La Ribera. A location that offers everything you need for the perfect holiday or permanent living. The town centre has plenty of restaurants, specialty shops, shops, etc. where you will find everything you need from daily amenities. Also, the beautiful sandy beaches are only 100m away. Due to its central location on the Mar Menor, you also have in the surrounding area several other towns, golf courses, shopping centres that are definitely worth a visit. The house itself was recently fully renovated and equipped with a cosy garden/terrace where you can enjoy the Spanish...(Ask for More Details!)
