This private residential development offers a selection of three- and four-bedroom villas, set within an intimate and secure enclave. Each villa features large terraces and pergolas within its own private garden, while also forming part of a small cluster that shares beautifully landscaped communal gardens and swimming pools, creating a semi-closed community feel. The villas boast stunning views across the championship Indiana golf course and the surrounding mountain ranges, and are conveniently located within easy reach of all resort facilities. Key features include a main bedroom located on the first floor, opening onto a spacious terrace. Each villa benefits from a fully landscaped garden, ample outdoor space for alfresco dining,...(Ask for More Details!)
