This development comprises three distinct property types, each with its own unique features. Offering a selection of three- and four-bedroom detached villas, the homes are thoughtfully laid out over either a single ground floor or two levels. These contemporary villas seamlessly blend luxury, comfort, and Mediterranean charm throughout both their interior and exterior living spaces. The expansive ground floor is designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living, featuring spacious bedrooms with private terrace access. Open-plan living and dining areas extend onto generous terraces, complete with shade-providing pergolas—ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining. In the two-storey villas, two or three of the bedrooms enjoy direct access to upper-level terraces, creating
