Penthouse in the heart of Torrevieja with 3 bedrooms and 106 m² built. It is a bright property with a living-dining room that opens onto a small balcony/terrace and has wooden floors. The building is on a pedestrian/quiet street next to commercial and leisure areas; the images show pedestrian squares, shops and the urban environment typical of the centre. The property requires some updating in certain rooms; it combines a central location with the possibility of making it profitable as a main residence or for holiday rental after renovation.
