Set in a quiet cul-de-sac in Benissa Costa, this villa offers something that is increasingly hard to find: privacy, independence between the different areas of the property and a highly flexible layout. Renovated 3 years ago, it offers 204 m² of built area, a 22 m² covered parking pergola and a 755 m² plot, with a current layout of five bedrooms and four bathrooms. On the main level, there are two spacious and fully independent areas, each with its own private entrance and terrace, allowing them to be enjoyed with a high degree of privacy and autonomy. The first comprises a living room with fireplace, separate dining room, fitted kitchen,...(Ask for More Details!)
