A boutique development of 8 independent luxury villas, conceived in a contemporary Mediterranean style with clean lines and a strong focus on light, space, and everyday comfort. The homes are designed for modern living, combining open interior layouts with generous outdoor areas so the terrace and solarium feel like a natural extension of the house. Key specifications include practical comfort features such as home automation, selected kitchen appliances, and underfloor heating in the bathrooms. Outside, each villa is "completed" with "a private garden and pool, creating a calm, private setting for year-round use-suited to both relaxed daily living and easy entertaining, without unnecessary
