This newly built detached villa is located in La Fustera, within a well-established residential area surrounded by nature. The property enjoys open and sea views and is just a short distance from the coast and all essential amenities. The villa is conceived as a single, exclusive residence with its own identity and architectural approach, offering a high level of privacy, spaciousness, and individuality. It combines contemporary architecture with Mediterranean influences, featuring clean volumes, natural materials, and a design that integrates harmoniously with its surroundings. Interior spaces are designed to maximize comfort and natural light, creating a seamless connection with the outdoor areas where terraces, the swimming pool, and the garden...(Ask for More Details!)
