Exclusive detached villa with a private swimming pool, located just 100 metres from Las Higuercas Beach. A contemporary home designed to enjoy natural light, comfort and the Mediterranean climate throughout the year. Its large windows, outdoor spaces and carefully planned layout create a seamless connection between the interior, terraces and private swimming pool. This detached villa stands on a private plot of 171. 60 m² and has been designed to make the most of every available space, creating a natural connection between the property and its outdoor areas. The rear façade opens directly onto the terrace and swimming pool through large sliding glass doors. These provide plenty of natural light...(Ask for More Details!)
