Spacious detached corner house for sale, located in an excellent residential area of Elda, just five minutes from the center and surrounded by all services: shops, pharmacy, health center, private school, and public transport. An ideal property for those seeking space, privacy, and a practical location without giving up tranquility. The house sits on a plot of approximately 500 m², with access through an automatic gate for vehicles, a covered carport parking area with capacity for one or two cars, and the possibility to adapt part of the exterior to create a small pool or leisure area. Additionally, it has a terrace and large outdoor areas with great potential. Distributed...(Ask for More Details!)
