Spacious apartment on San Pascual Street, in the heart of Torrevieja, designed for those who need real space without sacrificing the convenience of being in the city center. Four bedrooms and two bathrooms make this apartment a true family home, a place where everyone can have their own space, their own pace, and their own privacy, while also sharing moments in the common areas. Furnished and ready to move in, it's ideal for large families, those who work remotely and need several rooms, or those who frequently receive visitors and want to accommodate them comfortably. From the moment you enter the building and go up to the apartment, you'll feel...(Ask for More Details!)
