Some homes catch your eye straight away. Others reveal their value once you take a closer look. This detached villa in Doña Pepa (Ciudad Quesada) is not trying to impress with a glossy, magazine-style look or chase passing trends. It was built in 1996, and its style reflects that. But it also reflects something that is becoming harder and harder to find: solid construction, generous proportions and a layout that really works. And that is one of its biggest strengths. Anyone looking to update it does not need to start again from scratch. It simply needs a more contemporary touch. The foundations are already there: good structure, a well-thought-out layout...(Ask for More Details!)
