This stunning custom-built country residence masterfully blends luxury and comfort within a serene rural environment, making it the perfect family abode. The property is entirely enclosed and secured by an electronically controlled gate, providing both privacy and security. Upon entry, you are greeted by a spacious foyer that seamlessly connects to the rest of the home. To the right, a generous lounge flows into an expansive dining area, ideal for family gatherings and entertaining guests. The dining space opens into a delightful country-style kitchen, which includes a utility room, a conservatory, and a handy cloakroom. The ground floor also features a fourth bedroom with a sizable ensuite bathroom,...(Ask for More Details!)
